

Métis Nation of Ontario's Early Learning Book Picks

Title	Author
Mama/Papa Métis Series 	Native Reflections
My First Métis Lobstick 	Leah Dorion
Relatives with Roots 	Leah Dorion
Taanishi Books Emergent Reader Series 	Gabriel Dumont Institute

The Giving Tree: A Retelling of a Traditional Métis Story		Leah Dorion
The Diamond Willow Walking Stick		Leah Dorion
The Red Sash		Jean E Pendziwol
Andrea's Fiddle		Blaine Klippenstein
The Story of the Tamarack		Tobias Clarke

Girls Dance, Boys Fiddle		Carole Lindstrom
Christmas La Pouchinn		Deborah Delaronde
The Spring Celebration		Tina Umpherville
Call of the Fiddle		Wilfred Burton and Anne Patton
My Heart Fills with Happiness		Monique Gray-Smith

Métis Nation of Ontario
Early Learning & Child Care

You Hold Me Up	 The book cover for 'You Hold Me Up' features a blue sky background with a yellow ground. Two children, a boy in a pink shirt and a girl in a red shirt, are shown in profile, facing each other and holding hands. The title 'You Hold Me Up' is written in a red, cursive font at the top. Below the title, the authors' names 'Monique Gray-Smith + Danielle Dupont' are listed in a smaller, black font.	Monique Gray-Smith
------------------------------	---	----------------------------------